

FREE WORKSHOP

Sign up now!

IDENTITIES & ENGAGEMENT

A lively and innovative workshop for Montreal youth on citizen action to encourage real community

Goals

- Find out what identity is really all about
- Figure out the places where you can express yourself
- Learn how to interact with others while remaining true to your own identities, values and view of the world

Topics

- Taking a healthy approach to recognizing and affirming your own multiple affiliations
- Understanding the needs that underlie identity and its forms of expression
- Expressing yourself in a non-violent and non-confrontational way
- Understanding citizen engagement

CENTRE FOR THE PREVENTION
OF RADICALIZATION
LEADING TO VIOLENCE

FORUM JEUNESSE
DE L'ÎLE DE MONTRÉAL

FREE WORKSHOP

Sign up now!

IDENTITIES & ENGAGEMENT

A lively and innovative workshop for Montreal youth on citizen action to encourage real community

What?

- Time: 75 minutes to 3 hours
- Target group: Groups of young people on the Island of Montreal. The workshop is lively, a place where you can express yourself, hone your critical thinking and talk about your vision of community
- Maximum 25 participants

Organizers

- The Forum jeunesse de l'Île de Montréal, an affiliate of Concertation Montréal (FJIM)
- The Centre for the Prevention of Radicalization Leading to Violence (CPRLV)

If you have questions or to plan a workshop for your community:
info@info-radical.org | 514-687-7141