

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE “EXTREME DIALOGUE QUÉBEC” PROJECT

DISCUSSION GROUPS

for youth workers and education professionals

The Centre for the Prevention of Radicalization Leading to Violence (CPRLV) is organizing in person discussion groups as part of the “Extreme Dialogue Québec” project, a series of testimonial videos and educational resources designed to

- ▶ Strengthen the resilience and critical thinking of young people faced with violent extremism.
- ▶ Equip youth workers with the tools they need to address sensitive issues in an educational context.

WHO MAY ATTEND THESE DISCUSSION GROUPS?

- ▶ Educational professionals and support workers.
- ▶ Community youth workers.

WHY SHOULD I GET INVOLVED?

Your participation is critical for

- ▶ Adapting the project to real-life situations faced by Québec’s education community.
- ▶ Developing the best possible educational tools designed to raise awareness about and prevent violent extremism among young people in Québec.
- ▶ Helping the CPRLV to better understand what it is like for youth workers to deal with sensitive issues in an educational context.
- ▶ Designing relevant educational tools to equip youth workers for difficult conversations.

PROCEDURE FOR THE DISCUSSIONS :

- ▶ The discussions will be recorded while ensuring that participants remain completely anonymous.
- ▶ Each discussion group will have six participants.
- ▶ Participants will be offered financial compensation.

SCHEDULE :

- ▶ Wednesday, October 27, 2021,
from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.
